How We Care is a cross-cutting philosophy that aims to take care of everyone (guests, employees, community and environment), and is based on a safe environment, the highest standards of hygiene, social distancing, and the smartest innovation.

This new form of collective care is present in every one of the activities, spaces, and protocols at our hotels, enabling us to offer an even more personalized experience and consolidate our leadership in responsible tourism. And the way we do this is unique, based on the advice of our Medical Advisory Board, a team of public health and safety experts specialized in the tourist industry.

Reflecting this attitude within our How We Care philosophy, which brings forth more than 300 actions for rooms, restaurants, as well as pools and event spaces.

We aim to make customers feel safer than ever so that they can forget their worries and feel right at home, just as they always have.
